

Hello,

Welcome to our wonderful wear it pink community! Thank you for signing up, we're so pleased you're joining us.

Over the past 20 years, our fantastic community has raised a staggering £41 million for breast cancer research and support services. But we can't stop there.

We're on a mission to make sure that by 2050, everyone diagnosed with breast cancer lives, and is supported to live well. By wearing it pink this October, you can help us get there.

You're changing lives

Every year, over 55,000 people are diagnosed with breast cancer. It's the most common cancer in women in the UK.

So, whether you pull on a pair of pastel pink socks or you're head-to-toe in hot pink, however you take part you'll be making a huge impact.

Get started

We hope you love your wear it pink fundraising pack. Inside you'll find lots of fabulous pink materials that'll help you plan and decorate for your event. Most importantly, they'll also help you raise awareness and life-changing funds for people affected by breast cancer.

If you need any extra bits, don't hesitate to get in touch. You can also order anything else you'd like at wearitpink.org/sign-in using your unique registration number.

Please do share your wonderful stories with us, we love hearing from you. We're here if you need anything, even just some tips and hints to get you inspired!

You can reach out to us at wearitpink@breastcancernow.org or on 0333 20 70 300.

So, enjoy planning and have the best time wearing it pink!

Thanks so much for your support,

INIE ran

YOUR SUPPORT WILL HELP RESEARCHERS LIKE DR MARC RABIONET DIAZ

Marc is working to improve breast cancer treatments at the Breast Cancer Now Toby Robins Research Centre at the Institute of Cancer Research.

My mum is a survivor of breast cancer, so it's something that is immensely close to my heart.

My current project is focused on how the environment around the tumour affects the activation of T cells, a type of immune cell that can kill cancer cells. This research will help us understand how we can modify the tumour environment to our advantage, to make breast cancer treatments more effective.

We do research because we want to understand how breast cancer works. Seeing people who support our research through events like wear it pink gives us motivation to keep doing it.

- Marc

Thank you for helping to fund the vital work our researchers are doing.

BREAST CANCER NOW'S CAMPAIGNING WINS

Over the years we've campaigned to make sure that everyone affected by breast cancer receives the best possible treatment, services, support and care. And we couldn't have done it without you.

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE CAMPAIGNING WINS THAT YOU HELPED MAKE POSSIBLE:

- With the support of patient advocates we helped ensure life-extending secondary breast cancer drugs like Kadcyla, Perjeta and Trodelvy are available on the NHS across the UK. This could help give people with incurable secondary breast cancer the hope of more time
- We contributed significantly to bringing about the long-called-for secondary breast cancer audit in England and Wales. We also helped secure a commitment to everyone with secondary breast cancer having access to the right expertise and nursing support in the NHS England Long Term Plan
- We helped the potentially life-saving primary breast cancer drug, olaparib, become approved for use on the NHS. This could enable certain women to have the prospect of a future free from breast cancer

By wearing it pink and raising money, you're helping to make a huge difference to the lives of people affected by breast cancer.
