

Spice up your fundraising this autumn!

Six ideas to help you smash your target

Pumpkin carving contest

Contact your local farmer or supermarket to see if they have any pumpkins going spare. Failing that, host a BYOP (bring your own pumpkin) night. Charge a small fee to enter the competition, and let the carving begin!

Halloween bake off

Rustle up your most spooktacular showstoppers in aid of our research. Sell your treats at work, with a suggested donation for each item. You could even use some leftover pumpkins for a pie!

Spooky quiz night

Contact your local pub or hall to host a spooky quiz night. You could theme the questions around Halloween films such as: who plays Winifred Sanderson in Hocus Pocus?

Top tip: If you ask a local pub that already has a set quiz night, they might let you take over and host it to help with your fundraising.

Halloween party

Host a Halloween party at home or at work. You can have fun apple bobbing for prizes and judging a best dressed competition. Charge a suggested donation ticket price and let your guests take a chance on a 'trick or treat' tombola.

Bonfire night

Remember, remember the 5th of November, fundraising, fireworks and cake! Contact your local fireworks display and see if they'd let you host a stall on the night. You could sell soup, toffee apples, or Catherine wheel cupcakes – all for a suggested donation.

National curry week

Celebrate National Curry Week (22 – 28 October) by hosting a curry night for your family and friends. Ask them to donate the price of a takeaway to your fundraising total. Take a look here for some recipe inspiration.

Don't forget, we're on hand with anything you need to support you throughout your fundraising.
